Board Meeting
Thursday, February 5, 2010

Present:

Larry Fritz	Mark Lyon	Mike Halverson	Aaron Epps
Linda Cowdin	Vince Cruickshank	Charlie Caverzagie	Ron Peery
Charley Ogden	Rich Hovendick	Lindsay Peterson

Absent and Excused:

Shirley Johnson	Rich Kern	Steve Wang	Larry Rigby
Chris Lange

Meeting called to order 6:34.

Linda Cowdin reported that we had 418 attend the recognition banquet. The date for next year's banquet has been set for January 29th, 2011.

Larry Fritz presented the minutes for the January meeting. Vince Cruickshank moved to accept the minutes; Rich Hovendick seconded the motion. The minutes were approved.

Rich Hovendick discussed the potential of having another increase in the numbers of Lil' Red Spikers. Possibilities of having more Lil' Spikers for the clinic were discussed. It was decided that we will need to limit the numbers to 350.

Mark Lyon: announced that VB 101 will be held May 8th. The fee will be $75.

Aaron Epps: mentioned that he is working on an article about the memorial organized by the Schwartz family for Kae Clough, Jordan Larson's mother.

Charlie Caverzagie: informed the group that he had received 2 letters from Texas fans. One in particular recognized the high level of booster support at Nebraska.

Lindsay Peterson: announced that the parallel booster trip to China is a No Go. Time is short, it would require a business plan etc., and since it would cost at least $5K there is concern that it would not attract sufficient interest this late.

We will need to get a basketball to women's basketball for autographs to have as a raffle item for the golf tournament.

We will not be able to provide pink breast cancer awareness shirts for the team and then raffle them.

The NCAA voted to allow beach volleyball to proceed, but the format is uncertain.

Charley Ogden: said the seatbacks were OK and ready for next season.

Mike Halverson: distributed the Treasurer's report. Larry Fritz moved to approve the Treasurer's report; Vince Cruickshank seconded the motion. The Treasurer's report was approved.

Vince Cruickshank: had nothing to report.

Ron Peery: announced that Larry Rigby, Rich Kern, Chris Lange, Shirley Johnson, and Steve Wang were excused.

He reported from Larry Rigby that the spirit Center in Kansas City has yet to meet with the NCAA. Their response to our ticket request will be after that meeting.

Ron also announced that Ally O'Shea was resigning from the board.

He also mentioned that Chris Lange is looking for items to raffle or auction at the golf tournament.

Charley Ogden moved to adjourn; Charlie Caverzagie seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 7:23.
